

Growth/Income (ESG)

September 30, 2019

Objective

The portfolio seeks to obtain growth over stability of principal. As such, the portfolio will experience fluctuation in market value with meaningful exposure to investments focused on growth. The portfolio will mainly invest in liquid (e.g., mutual funds & exchange-traded funds) assets.

Philosophy

Abbot Downing's investment philosophy utilizes a time-tested rational approach to asset allocation using a four-asset class framework. After identifying the client's unique needs, return expectations, and risk tolerance, we develop an optimal mix of low-cost passive investments along with high-conviction active managers across all asset classes to enhance return and diversification.

Asset allocation does not assure or guarantee better performance and cannot eliminate the risk of investment losses. Past performance does not indicate future results. The value or income associated with a security or an investment may fluctuate. There is always the potential for loss as well as gain. Investments discussed in this presentation are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and may be unsuitable for some investors depending on their specific investment objectives and financial position.

Fixed income securities are subject to availability and market fluctuation. These securities may be worth less than the original cost upon redemption. Certain high-yield/high-risk bonds carry particular market risks and may experience greater volatility in market value than investment-grade corporate bonds. Government bonds and Treasury bills are guaranteed by the U.S. government and, if held to maturity, offer a fixed rate of return and fixed principal value. Interest from certain municipal bonds may be subject to state and/or local taxes and in some instances, the alternative minimum tax.

Real estate investments carry a certain degree of risk and may not be suitable for all investors.

Hedge fund valuations are based on estimates provided by the manager. Valuations are verified annually based on your K-1 and any adjustments that may be necessary will be reflected on your statement.

Investing in foreign securities presents certain risks that may not be present in domestic securities, including currency fluctuation, the potential for diplomatic and political instability, regulatory and liquidity risks, foreign taxation, and differences in auditing and other financial standards. These risks are generally intensified in emerging markets.

The "Performance" sections show performance for the portfolio and for your individual accounts. Performance for the portfolio is shown as net of fees. Abbot Downing fees charged to accounts are stated in your Abbot Downing Terms of Condition and Fee Schedule. Performance "net of fees" is lower than performance gross of fees. It is lower because it reflects the deduction of the fees actually charged to each account.

The indices and benchmarks show for comparison purposes are unmanaged. Their performance returns do not reflect the deduction of any advisory fees or commissions. You cannot purchase an index.

Important Account Information: Effective 10/31/2015, the Complimentary Strategies name classification was changed to Alternative Investments.
